

Bringing together photographers, curators, students, amateurs and professionals from all walks of life, the Auckland Festival of Photography offers a conglomeration of images that speak to any and all. This year's stream of talent sees photo exhibitions displayed at the city's major galleries, project spaces and public sites, depicting everything from epic portraits in India to painfully beautiful landscapes that draw attention to climate change.

31st May - 16th June www.photographyfestival.org.nz

